

ADVANCE INFORMATION

The Road To Hell By Sheila Quigley

About the author: Houghton-le-Spring author with very loyal readership. Has had much media publicity and is a keen promoter for in-store events.

5 November 2009

9781907183034

£18.99

Hardback

FICTION: GENERAL / CRIME & THRILLER

Established thriller writer with testimonial from high-profile writer in the genre. Television drama rights optioned with household-named actress attached. Much media and industry interest. Initial publicity features in Bookseller magazine, local and national press.

Murder, mystery and suspense in Houghton-le-Spring as DI Lorraine Hunt is back for Sheila's most eagerly-anticipated novel. The Road To Hell gives insight and back story to established characters in the latest story in the Seahills Series.

'Sheila Quigley is queen of the rough and tumble thriller. With her strong heroines and gritty plots, she draws us into a shadowy world where only the strong survive.' Tess Gerritsen

PRAISE FOR SHEILA QUIGLEY

'Proves she isn't a one-hit wonder.' Bella

'Quigley's gripping thriller, Run for Home, is a convincing portrayal of a violent underworld.' The Independent

'Fast-paced and overtly commercial, Run for Home is a modern version of Cookson's bestsellers.' Telegraph Magazine

tontobooks

www.tontobooks.com

Tonto Books Ltd, 71 Thornton Crescent, Blaydon,
Tyne & Wear, NE21 4BA

Tel: 0191 4421857 E: stu@tontobooks.com